COUNTERFEITERS BEWARE.

A Michigan Concern Enjoined.

[From the Rochester Morning Herald.]

The following injunction has been obtained by the Hop Bitters Company, of Rochester, N. Y., against Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Michigan, prohibiting him from manufacturing or selling "German Hop Bitters."

The President of the United States of America to Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Mich., his servants, workmen, salesmen and agents, and each and every one of them:

Whereas, it has been represented unto the Justices of our Circuit Court, the Hon. Stanley Matthews, and the Hon. Henry B. Brown, at Detroit, within and for said district, sitting as a court of Chancery, that you, Collatinus D. Warner, are manufacturing and selling a medicine named German Hop Bitters, in fraudulent imitation of the Hop Bitters made and sold by complainant; your said medicine being devised, calculated and intended to mislead the public into purchasing such counterfeit goods as the manufacture of the complainant.

We therefore, in consideration of the premises, do strictly enjoin you, the said Collatinus D. Warner and all and every the persons before named, from using the words "Hop Bitters" on any fluids contained in bottles so as to induce the belief that such fluids are made by complainant; and further, from manufacturing, selling or offering for sale, any bitters or other fluids in bottles and with labels, and in the general form in which you were manufacturing and selling the bitters, called by you German Hop Bitters, on the filing of the bill; or in any other bottles, or with any other labels contrived or designed to represent or induce the belief that the bitters or fluids sold by you are the goods of the complainant, until the further order of the court.

Witness the Honorable MORRISON R. WAITE, Chief Justice of the United States, at Detroit, this 15th day of July, A. D. 1885. Walter S. Harsha, clerk.

Presented by the Solicitors: J. J. J.

If when you call for Hop Bitters the drugist hands out anything but "Hop Bitters" with a green cluster of Hops on white label, shun that drugist as you would a viper; and if he has taken your money for a bogus stuff, indict him for the fraud and sue him for damages for the swindling he will reward you liberally for the conviction.

See U. S. Court injunction against C. D. Warner, Reading, Mich., and all his salesmen, agents, druggists, and other imitators.

Foreign News.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

PANAMA, September 15.—Mr. Julio Remono Santos, who was recently released from prison in Ecuador, has arrived in Panama, on his way to Washington, to establish his claim to recognition as an American citizen by U. S. Government, before taking steps to obtain restitution from Ecuador authorities, for losses he has sustained by false arrest and imprisonment.

PANAMA, September 15.—The latest advices from Lima give the details of a battle at Canta, on the 15th ult. On the morning of that day, a detachment of government troops, occupying the town of Canta, sixty miles from Lima, in the valley running parallel to that of the Rimac, was surprised by a division of Gen. Caceres army, and after a sharp action of several hours was forced to fly in disorder.

The Government troops operating against Canta were three-hundred and fifty men of the line and one Gatling gun, fifty cavalry and fifty mounted gendarmes, the whole force being commanded by Colonel Torres. Canta had been occupied for several days, the montoneros, or irregular revolutionary forces, retiring on the approach of the detachment. On Friday evening news arrived of the approach of a considerable division of the enemy, and upon Bustamant's advance, it was decided to defend the town.

On Saturday at 7 a. m. the hills enclosing Canta, were occupied by the enemy apparently 1500 or 2000 strong, and with about 200 cavalry. The latter were stationed at the outlet of the valley leading towards the coast and to the interior, so that from the first the government forces were effectually cornered. Col. Torres had placed his men in the barracks situated in the principal square of the town, having also small outlying squads behind some of the walls in the suburbs.

Caceres' artillery, four small field pieces, opened fire from the hill at Huay Chellani, at half past 7, and in a few minutes the firing became general. The enemy descended the hills and attempted to enter the town but were repeatedly driven back. For two hours the positions of the combatants were unaltered, fire being all the time very heavy. At midday the defenders of the city began to slacken their fire, for the ammunition was rapidly becoming exhausted, and for an hour they received without reply the volleys of the attacking party. At 3 o'clock a desperate attempt was made to drive the rebels from the town, which they had then entered, at the point of the bayonet. This failed, and then the defeat was accomplished. The fight was hand to hand on the streets, no quarter being given, and the most dreadful scenes of carnage occurred. Houses where the defeated soldiers had taken refuge were burst open and all within murdered, without distinction of age, sex or character, and then were burned. A few of the most determined of the government cavalry, headed by Col. Pacheco, cut their way through the enemy's ranks and escaped.

Colonel Bustamant, to whose counsel the defeat was due, when he found all was lost, blew his brains out on the field. Colonel Torres escaped early in the fight, and the government has named another officer to command the decimated Cajamaraca. Of the 500 or 600 men engaged on the government side, probably 200 escaped by flying to the mountains or following the pachas. They are still coming in, in parties of two or three. The 5,000 soldiers in garrison at Lima are not at all affected by the reverse, and their officers are confident of their loyalty in case of an attack on the city.

ROTTERDAM, September 15.—Great socialist meeting held here yesterday in favor of general suffrage.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—The publication is made here to-day of a startling disclosure in society at Celina, Mercer county, O., where three or four youths, scarcely of age and sons of leading and wealthy citizens, are under bond for burglaries committed in that town. One of them is Clayton Marsh, son of Hon. A. D. Marsh, speaker of the Ohio house of representatives. Another is the son of County Clerk Landfair, who is a student in a Kentucky military institute. Several others are suspected but not yet arrested.

The matter became public through the nephew of the sheriff who had been entrusted with the sale of some stolen jewelry. Young Marsh, it is said, made a confession. He and young Landfair and a barkeeper, named Joseph Schilling have been arrested and are under bond. The whole town is wild with excitement and the citizens fear that no adequate prosecution can be had, owing to the influence of friends of the defendants. A fund has been started to employ competent prosecution.

CARMI, Ill., Sept. 15.—Wm. Finley, a farmer, 61 years of age, who lives five and one half miles southeast of this city, brutally murdered his wife, aged 60 years, yesterday. There were no witnesses of the tragedy, except two grandchildren, a boy and girl aged respectively four and six years. The wife and husband had been on unfriendly terms for several days and yesterday he became violent and struck her twice, felling her to the earth. Then in a frenzy he grasped a butcher knife and as the poor woman regained her feet and fled from him he repeatedly thrust the blade into her head and body and running a few steps she fell dead. The criminal has not yet been found and it is thought he may commit suicide.

The Manson Boom.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 15.—The state Sentinel publishes a long special dispatch from Washington to say Gen. Manson's candidacy for the Indiana pension agency is strongly urged there and it concludes:

"For the reason that he is a conspicuous figure in the Mexican association attracts the attention of the whole country to a certain extent. Having an organization the influence is such that the party can ill afford to refuse their claims. There is a spirit of Freemasonry among them and the soldiers of the Mexican war whom I meet here—and I meet a number of them—would regard the rejection of General Manson's application as a personal affront. I was told to-day by one of his friends from the state of New York: 'General Manson is actually a candidate. A sentiment will impel the National Mexican Veteran association to ask his appointment in the strongest terms.'"

Several striking conversions have occurred and manifestations of the "state of trance" have been witnessed.

Mrs. Diltz last night repeated to the Muncie News man her wonderful cure and again to the swaying audience. Briefly, correcting other published statements, it is thus: Feeble and weakly all her life, she was three years under the care of the best physicians with a complication of diseases baffling their skill. For seven months prior to April 15 she was bedfast and given up to die. About the 5th of April she sought and found conversion, and shortly after sent for Mrs. Woodworth to pray for her recovery. She could not come, but on the evening of the 15th, while in a buggy, prayed fervently for Mrs. Diltz's recovery. At the same hour Mrs. Diltz went into a trance, in which she saw Christ, surrounded by a bright light, and a crowd of sinners to the left pointed out to her. She felt herself raised up, arose from bed, walked out and ate a hearty supper and has constantly improved, until her health is better than during her life time, and she is now assisting Mrs. Woodworth.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 15, 1885.

THE STRIKE IS AT AN END.

The strike of the printers has ended, so far as THE SENTINEL and GAZETTE are concerned. These papers are published as usual with a full force of employees at the union scale of prices. If a few printers, who quit their places without cause, go into the socialistic business of "boycotting" such merchants as Keil Bros., George Reiter, George Esmond and others, on the eve of a boom in trade, they will encounter stern public resistance. THE SENTINEL believes respectable Knights of Labor will not go into such suicidal business without giving parties concerned a chance to be heard at their meeting—a sacred right accorded to all men. THE SENTINEL is anxious to face its accusers and explain away the alleged grievances of six printers and a boy.

THE OTHER SIDE.

This article is copied from the GAZETTE and explains itself:

THE GAZETTE and Sentinel get but little sympathy from the public in the present trouble with the printers. The greedy proprietors of these two concerns will learn after awhile that it pays to even treat printers "white."—Journal.

This is about the coolest piece of impudence on record. The public will remember that the whole quarrel and fuss is about the setting of telegraph matter ranging from one to two and a half columns per day, which comes over the wires. The Sentinel by agreement puts into type what comes in the afternoon report, and the GAZETTE that which comes in the night report, amounting in all to from four to six columns per day. One more fact, it is well for the public to understand, and that is that the associated press supplies all its members with exactly the same matter so far as it goes. Formerly the Sentinel and GAZETTE each set up this matter separately, as it is furnished in duplicate. The idea was suggested and acted on to set up and exchange matter as above. Now dropping for the present all other consideration, and referring to the article of the Journal, we should like to know how much "whiter" the treatment of the Journal is to printers than that of the GAZETTE and Sentinel. How much money does it pay these poor printers for setting telegraphic news each day, or in one whole year? Not a cent. The Journal appears in the morning with the news published in the Sentinel the previous evening, but it does not set up a solitary line of it. The Journal is overflowing with gush for the poor printer. How does it get its news? We will tell the readers. Ten compositors at Chicago set all or in part of the news for 130 dailies, and the greater part of the matter for 1700 weeklies. This is done by setting up enough news matter for one paper, and enough miscellaneous matter for one weekly paper, and this is then stereotyped, the plates sent to all these papers. The Journal gets its news via the Limited Express in the form of plates from Chicago. How much money do Fort Wayne printers make out of the telegraphic (?) news printed in the Journal? Let the printers arise and explain. Let the "greedy proprietors" of that sheet answer? They are robbing the "poor printer" at home and giving their money to the fellows in Chicago who employ a few printers who do the work that would on the GAZETTE and Sentinel plan give employment to 3,000 more men. This is where the friendship for the printer comes in. In this free country no one questions the right of the Journal to get its matter when, where and how it pleases, and just what right justice or consistency is there in denouncing the GAZETTE or Sentinel who come by their matter in a more legitimate way than its own, while at the same time it makes such terrible poohoo about the poor printer, and denounces the wickedness of others because these printers are not treated "white" it robs them of every single penny in its own office in the news matter. Such sublime hypocrisy and unadulterated cheek is no where found on record. The printers to be honest should strike against these news plates.

The Right Tone.

The Fort Wayne daily News says: "With the differences between the GAZETTE and its employees and THE SENTINEL and its workmen, the public has had no concern. It has been satisfied to let employers and employees adjust their own troubles by agreement or arbitration, but it seems now that the public is to be dragged into the controversy, and those who decline to take active part on behalf of the dissatisfied employees are to be published in a daily black list. We submit that this action is unworthy of American workmen, and calculated to injure rather than advance their cause. The interests of labor in this country can never be conserved by a spirit of intolerance that resorts to threats against innocent parties to embroil them in difficulties in which they have no legitimate interest. By this action the printers are likely to secure the loss of what sympathy they had on the part of the general public, and we regret it for their sakes."

100 DOLLARS ONE DOLLAR

Is inseparably connected with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and is true of no other medicine. It is an unanswerable argument as to strength and economy, while thousands testify to its superior blood-purifying and strengthening qualities. A bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains 100 doses and will last a month, while others will average to last not over a week. Hence, for economy, buy Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE ONLY OBSTACLE.

At a seance a widow whose mother had recently died wished to communicate with the spirit of her husband. The connection being made she said: "Do you see much of dear mamma in heaven, John?" "I never see her at all." "Is it possible, John," continued the widow, regretfully, "that even now you cannot love mamma?" "I would be very glad to love the old lady," replied angelic John, "if I had the ghost of a chance, but the trouble is she isn't here."—New York Times.

"A crick in the back" is many times a symptom of kidney disease. Hunt's (Kidney and Liver) Remedy will cure it.

For women in delicate health no medicine equals Hunt's Remedy. All female complaints are speedily cured by it. It never fails.

W. H. Barnum is arranging to contest General Hawley's seat in the United States senate next year.

A pert young miss was asked if she had read Shakespeare. She replied, with a toss of her head, "Of course I have, I read it when it first came out." This is a stock joke, but there is no joke about the thousands of certificates of cures effected by Mischler's Herb Bitters. They range all the way from ordinary cases of cramp and colic up to the most serious complications of internal and nervous disorders. It is, indeed, a panacea, a sovereign remedy for the ills of humanity. It has done wonders in kidney and liver complaints.

THE HOLY CAUSE.

Arrangements for the Great State Y. M. C. A., Convention.

The state convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in this city from October 1 to 4, at the Sunday school room of the new First Presbyterian church.

This is the sixteenth annual convention of the association of Indiana. Fort Wayne is the third city in point of population in the state. There has never been a Y. M. C. A., convention here. It is intended to make this the most successful of all the conventions yet held.

The following topics are suggested for consideration: Reports of local associations, limited to three minutes; to be submitted in writing for publication in year book. "Workers' Training Classes."

"What Evangelistic Work Should We Do?" "What Kind of Games Should be Allowed in Our Work?" "The Necessity for, and Benefit of, Personal Work with Young Men." "Our State Work."

"The Work in our Educational Institutions." "The Work Among Railroad Men."

"Lecture Courses—Paid and Otherwise." "What are Our Perils?" "How to Secure a Permanent Home?" "Open Air Meetings." Other topics, together with bible readings and song services, will be added.

The ladies of Fort Wayne are already arranging for the event and the following committees were selected to do royally with the delegates from abroad:

Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church—Mrs. Adaline Bond, Mrs. Degroff Nelson, Mrs. F. P. Randall.

Congregational—Mrs. Mossman, Mrs. Slagle, and Mrs. W. Wadge.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Adaline Bond; first vice-president, Mrs. O. J. Wilson; second vice-president Mrs. W. H. Hoffman; secretary, Mrs. M. E. McLaughlin; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Jacobs.

It was, after ample discussion, decided by a unanimous vote that a reception be tendered the visiting delegates on the evening of October 1st, and that it be held at the Princess rink. It was resolved that the three ladies from each church act as a solitary committee in their respective congregations to secure entertainment for the delegates. Also that each committee together with their pastor a point ten young ladies from each church to aid at the reception.

The following executive committee of one lady from each church was appointed to have full charge of all the arrangements for the reception. EVERYBODY COMING,

Fair Weather Now Assured for the Big Fair Which Opens To-Morrow.

Entries for To-Morrow's Races-A Fine Track and a Great Field of Horses.

The Great Five-Mile Ladies Race on Friday-Thursday's Balloon Ascension-Notes.

Murky skies with frequent rains, which have too often attended fair week at Fort Wayne, will, in all probability, this year be providentially absent, and the thousands of out-of-town people who had anticipated attending The Big Fair will no doubt have all their anticipations fully gratified. Extra cheap rates have been secured on all the railroads.

This morning opened with an almost cloudless sky and with a freshening breeze which was quite enjoyable on the grounds. From early dawn until late in the afternoon, when THE SENTINEL reporter withdrew, the horses had been trotting or pacing on the half-mile track, which was hourly growing better. Many pretty, impromptu contests of speed resulted and were applauded by the hundreds who had gathered there.

The most observed of all the people on the track, however, were Madam Marquette and Myrtle Peck, the celebrated equestriennes, who exercised their spirited stable of thoroughbred running horses. The ladies wore riding habits of gray, with black velvet jockey caps. Their carriage on horseback is remarkable for its firmness and grace. Few gentlemen sit a horse better than these fair contestants for the prize in Friday's exciting race.

The association has been at great expense to secure this attractive novelty and desire that their patrons do not miss seeing it. Wherever the ladies have appeared they have been the great attraction. Each uses five horses, which are changed at the end of each mile, the dismounting and mounting again being done in front of the grand stand. The race always excites the audience to the highest pitch and is always as spirited as can be well imagined. No ladies have reputations as riders equal to those of these two.

A True Heroine.

At Valparaiso the clothing of Julia Leahy, a young girl, caught fire from a stove. Her screams brought two men to her assistance who tore off her clothing. She was terribly burned; but even in her anguish cried out, "call Father O'Reilly. It is no use to call a doctor as I will die, and it will only make a greater expense for my poor mother." The poor girl died a few hours after. She is the heroine with all the graces of God. No person can have holier, nobler or higher thoughts in the face of death than God, mother and priest.

STILL TRUE.

"What do you know?" whispered THE SENTINEL representative into Mayor Muhler's ear this morning. "Well sir," said his honor, "an intelligent gentleman asked me yesterday 'why don't you close the saloons on Sunday and at 11 o'clock at night?' I was a little surprised at the man's ignorance and so I explained to him that no place in the statutes, ordinances or laws does the word 'close' appear. No law gives me the power to close a door and it is silly to talk about it. The law only says 'they shall not sell liquor on Sunday or after 11 o'clock at night.' To convict them of that one must go to their place in the forbidden time, drink the liquor and pay for it himself or stand by and witness some one else do it. I hope no one expects me to engage in that business? Some time ago Prosecutor Dawson subpoenaed forty prominent citizens before the grand jury and not one of them could remember whether he took a drink of liquor on Sunday, whether he paid for it, if he did, or who gave it to him. This shows you the utter impossibility of convicting liquor men, yet people look angry at me if I don't suppress the traffic with a wave of my hand. I am not worrying about the matter and only speak of it to show how unjust and unfair some people are towards officers. I will prosecute all cases brought before me, sustained by evidence. That is all I can do. I will not drink the liquor and make complaint myself, neither will I employ men to do it, for they would probably meet the fate of Deppler and Rinehart, who recently informed on saloon men."

There is so much truth in Mayor Muhler's statement that no honorable man should grumble at him unless he accompanies it with an affidavit setting forth some violation of the law. Then you will find a chief executive with plenty of backbone.

Masonic Mutual Benefit Association.

The officers and directors of the Masonic Mutual Benefit association met last night at the office of Secretary West, in the Indianapolis Journal building, at Indianapolis, for the purpose of organizing the order and of transacting the regular monthly business. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Austin H. Brown; vice-president, R. S. Robertson; secretary, Geo. H. Test; treasurer, Wm. H. Smythe; attorney, Stanton J. Peelle; gen agent, Robert S. Heiskell; medical director, Samuel Davis.

A Physician's Testimony.

In the treatment of lung and bronchial diseases the liver is often implicated to such an extent that a hepatic remedy becomes necessary in effecting a cure of the lungs. In the treatment of such cases I prescribe Simmons' Liver Regulator with entire satisfaction. I find that it acts mildly but effectually in regulating the secretions of the liver, stomach and bowels.

I. L. STEPHENSON, M. D., Owensboro, Ky.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Wm. Lichtsin, the East Wayne Street Liquor Dealer, Arrested for Perjury.

The last business of the grand jury was to return an indictment against Wm. Lichtsin for perjury. Mr. Lichtsin keeps a saloon on East Wayne street, and some time ago was arrested for selling liquor on Sunday. Deppler and Rinehart, the informers, made the affidavit and Mr. Lichtsin sought to defeat their action by swearing he was out of the city at the time named. His family were summoned to the justice court, and not knowing the nature of Mr. Lichtsin's statement swore he was at home on the Sunday specified in the affidavit. This testimony was taken before the grand jury and Mr. Lichtsin was indicted as stated. Sheriff Nelson arrested him this morning, and he gave a $500 for his appearance with Fred Bicknese as security.

AMUSEMENTS.

DAN SULLY.

This entertaining comedian, of the robust kind, will present a "Capital Prize," at the Temple to-night and to-morrow night. This company has established its reputation and they are great in this "lottery of laughter" as the new play is called.

THE TWO JOHNS

appear at the Temple Thursday and Friday of this week: "The Two Johns" is without doubt one of the most amusing plays ever written. Conceive, if you can, two men of over 300 pounds avoirdupois, each with a strong resemblance to the other in face, form and dress. One of the Johns is always in mischief, but when retribution comes the other John is invariably the victim. The play is replete with very ludicrous situations, which provoke great mirth.

COUNTERFEITERS BEWARE.

A Michigan Concern Envoied.

[From the Rochester Morning Herald.]

The following injunction has been obtained by the Hop Bitters Company, of Rochester, N. Y., against Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Michigan, prohibiting him from manufacturing or selling "German Hop Bitters."

The President of the United States of America to Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Mich., his servants, workmen, salesmen and agents, and each and every one of them:

Whereas, it has been represented unto the Justices of our Circuit Court, the Hon. Stanley Matthews, and the Hon. Henry B. Brown, at Detroit, within and for said district, sitting as a court of chancery, that you, Collatinus D. Warner, are manufacturing and selling a medicine named German Hop Bitters, in fraudulent imitation of the Hop Bitters made and sold by complaintant; your said medicine being devised, calculated and intended to mislead the public into purchasing your counterfeit goods as the manufacture of the complaintant.

We therefore, in consideration of the premises, do hereby enjoin you, the said Collatinus D. Warner and all and every the persons, his servants, workmen, salesmen and agents, and each and every one of them, from the use of the words "Hop Bitters" on any fluids contained in bottles or so as to induce the belief that such fluids are made by complaintant, and further, from manufacturing, selling or offering for sale, any bottles or other fluids in the bottles and with labels, and in the general form in which you are manufacturing and selling the bottles, called by you German Hop Bitters, or with any other labels or words or designs to represent or induce the belief that the bottles or fluids sold by you are the goods of the complaintant, until the further order of the court.

Witness the Honorable MICHIGAN R. WHITE, Chief Justice of the United States, at Detroit, this 15th day of July, A. D. 1885. (L. S.) Walter R. Harris, clerk.

Respectfully the undersigned:

If when you call for Hop Bitters the drugist hands out anything but Hop Bitters, with a green cluster of Hops on white label, show that drugist as you would a viper; and if he takes your money for a bogus stuff, indicate him for the fraud and sue him for damages for the same, and we will reward you liberally for the completion.

See U. S. Court injunction against J. D. Warner, Reading, Mich., and all his salesmen, agents, druggists, and other imitators.

Foreign News.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL. PANAMA, September 15.—Mr. Julio Hernandez Santos, who was recently released from prison in Ecuador, has arrived in Panama, on his way to Washington, to establish his claim to recognition as an American citizen by U. S. Government, before taking steps to obtain restitution from Ecuador authorities, for losses he has sustained by false arrest and imprisonment.

PANAMA, September 15.—The latest advices from Lima give the details of a battle at Canta, on the 15th ult. On the morning of that day a detachment of government troops, occupying the town of Canta, sixty miles from Lima, in the valley running parallel to that of the Rimac, was surprised by a division of Gen. Caceres' army, and after a sharp action of several hours was forced to fly in disorder.

The Government troops operating against Canta were three hundred and fifty men of the line and one Gatling gun, fifty cavalry and fifty mounted gendarmes, the whole force being commanded by Colonel Torres. Canta had been occupied for several days, the montoneros, or irregular revolutionary forces, retiring on the approach of the detachment. On Friday evening news arrived of the approach of a considerable division of the enemy, and upon Bustamant's advance, it was decided to defend the town.

On Saturday at 7 a. m. the hills enclosing Canta, were occupied by the enemy apparently 1500 or 2000 strong, and with about 200 cavalry. The latter were stationed at the outlet of the valley leading towards the coast and to the interior, so that from the first the government forces were effectively corralled. Col. Torres had placed his men in the barracks situated in the principal square of the town, having also small outlying squads behind some of the walls in the suburbs.

Caceres' artillery, four small field pieces, opened fire from the hill at Hony Chellani, at half past 7, and in a few minutes the firing became general. The enemy descended the hills and attempted to enter the town but were repeatedly driven back. For two hours the positions of the combatants were unaltered, fire being all the time very heavy. At midday the defenders of the city began to slacken their fire, for the ammunition was rapidly becoming exhausted, and for an hour they received without reply the volleys of the attacking party. At 3 o'clock a desperate attempt was made to drive the rebels from the town, which they had then entered, at the point of the bayonet. This failed, and then the defeat was accomplished. The fight was hand to hand on the streets, no quarter being given, and the most dreadful scenes of carnage occurred. Houses where the defeated soldiers had taken refuge were burst open and all within murdered, without distinction of age, sex or character, and then were burned. A few of the most determined of the government cavalry, headed by Col. Pacheco, cut their way through the enemy's ranks and escaped.

Colonel Bustamant, to whose counsel the defeat was due, when he found all was lost, blew his brains out on the field. Colonel Torres escaped early in the fight, and the government has named another officer to command the decimated Cajamaraca. Of the 500 or 600 men engaged on the government side, probably 200 escaped by flying to the mountains or following the pachas. They are still coming in, in parties of two or three. The 5,000 soldiers in garrison at Lima are not at all affected by the reverse, and their officers are confident of their loyalty in case of an attack on the city.

ROTTERDAM, September 15.—Great socialist meeting held here yesterday in favor of general suffrage.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. NEWBERG, N. Y.—The trial of the West Shore Railway 500,000 mortgage case was commenced before Judge Brown, here today. STARTLING.

Petted Sons Under Bond for Burglary.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—The publication is made here today of a startling disclosure in society at Celina, Mercer county, O., where three or four youths, scarcely of age and none of leading and wealthy citizens, are under bond for burglaries committed in that town. One of them is Clayton Marsh, son of Hon. A. D. Marsh, speaker of the Ohio house of representatives. Another is the son of County Clerk Landfair, who is a student in a Kentucky military institute. Several others are suspected but not yet arrested.

The matter became public through the dephew of the sheriff who had been entrusted with the sale of some stolen jewelry. Young Marsh, it is said, made a confession. He and young Landfair and a blackkeeper, named Joseph Schilling have been arrested and are under bond. The whole town is wild with excitement and the citizens fear that no adequate prosecution can be had, owing to the influence of friends of the defendants. A fund has been started to employ competent prosecution.

WIFE SLAYERS.

A Murderous Husband Slays His Wife with a Butcher Knife.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. CARMI, Ill., Sept. 15.—Wm. Finley, a farmer, 61 years of age, who lives five and one half miles southeast of this city, brutally murdered his wife, aged 60 years, yesterday. There were two witnesses of the tragedy, except two grandchildren, a boy and girl aged respectively four and six years. The wife and husband had been on unfriendly terms for several days and yesterday he became violent and struck her twice, felling her to the earth. Then in a frenzy he grasped a butcher knife and as the poor woman regained her feet and fled from him he repeatedly thrust the blade into her head and body and running a few steps she fell dead. The criminal has not yet been found and it is thought he may commit suicide.

STRANGLED HIS WIFE.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Yesterday the last freight lines operating over the Erie, Lackawanna and Vanderbilt roads, with the exception of the Blue Line, ordered an advance in grain rates to New York to 12 cents. Carter's Veto.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL. CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Mayor Harrison has vetoed the ordinance imposing a $400 license on brewers for the reason that the brewers, by reducing the price of beer ten per cent. to enable the retailers to pay their high license, would be taxed twice if a high license was imposed on them.

The Manson Boom.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 15.—The state Sentinel publishes a long special dispatch from Washington to say that Manson's candidacy for the Indiana pension agency is strongly urged there and it concludes: "For the reason that he is a conspicuous figure in the Mexican association attracts the attention of the whole country to a certain extent. Having an organization the influence is such that the party can ill afford to refuse their claims. There is a spirit of Freemasonry among them and the soldiers of the Mexican war whom I meet here—and I meet a number of them—would regard the rejection of General Manson's application as a personal affront. I was told today by one of his friends from the state of New York: 'General Manson is actually a candidate. A sentiment will impel the National Mexican Veteran association to ask his appointment in the strongest terms.'"

For seven months prior to April 15 she was bedfast and given up to die. About the 5th of April she sought and found conversion, and shortly thereafter for Mrs. Woodworth to pray for her recovery. She could not come, but on the evening of the 15th, while in a buggy, prayed fervently for Mrs. Diltz's recovery. At the same hour Mrs. Diltz went into a trance, in which she saw Christ, surrounded by a bright light, and a crowd of sinners to the left pointed out to her. She felt herself raised up, arose from bed, walked out and ate a hearty supper and has constantly improved, until her health is better than during her life time, and she is now assisting Mrs. Woodworth.

Jacob Desdich, an Abbot township farmer, was arrested to-day for raising an axe to strike Wm. Elise in a quarrel they had about some wheat. Justice France heard the complaint and fined Desdich.
County Superintendent Feltz recently held an examination at the M. E. College. One of his questions was: "What is the population of Fort Wayne?" He tells us he was answered all the way from 3,200 to 40,000.
Judge Sinclair keeps "tab" on his cuffs when cases are set down for trial and when cases are set ten days or two weeks ahead he finds some difficulty in reading his memoranda as his coat sleeve nearly rubs the writing out.
M. F. Wickliffe, the clever deputy county treasurer, will start Monday for a tour of the west. He will stop at Kansas City and Denver and take a trip up into Montana. Mr. Wickliffe may return with a "wild west" show.
It is being whispered around that Plymouth Congregational church, of this city, will observe, with appropriate services, her fifteenth birthday next Sunday. We shall be able to give to the public the full program later in the week.
The Lone Star fishing club, composed of E. G. Anderson, Harry Polhamus, George Anderson, C. Colbrell, Harry Waterman and Ed Evans went north this morning. Col. F. F. Beltz and E. W. Cook will follow them. Mr. Cook represents THE SENTINEL.
The attention of the official board of the Trinity M. E. church is called to a meeting of the board in connection with the prayer service in the class room, on Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before the meeting.
"Judge Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne, has removed his family to this city during his term as supreme judge, and they are temporarily occupying the residence of John S. Duncan, on North Alabama street, while Mr. Duncan and family are living at the Bates House," says the Indianapolis News.
The Associated Press dispatches recently detailed the arrest of two men at New York for a burglary committed at Toledo. Chief of Police O'Tyler, found a Fort Wayne pawn ticket on the person of one of the crooks and so wrote Capt. Dikid, who recovered the article, a gold chain, last evening. It was pawned at 207 Calhoun street.
Poundmaster Wehner is again in a jack of trouble. He was driving five cows from the Seventh ward last night. Wm. Hartel stopped him and held his hands while young Wehner, who was fined some time ago, drove the cows here. Mr. Wehner filed affidavits against the men this morning, and they will find the business expensive.

EVERYBODY COMING,
Fair Weather Now Assured for the Big Fair Which Opens To-Morrow.
Entries for To-Morrow's Races—A Fine Track and a Great Field of Horses.
The Great Five-Mile Ladies Race on Friday—Thursday's Ballon Ascension—Notes.
Murky skies with frequent rains, which have too often attended fair week at Fort Wayne, will, in all probability, this year be providentially absent, and the thousands of out-of-town people who had anticipated attending The Big Fair will no doubt have all their anticipations fully gratified. Extra cheap rates have been secured on all the railroads.
This morning opened with an almost cloudless sky and with a freshening breeze which was quite enjoyable on the grounds. From early dawn until late in the afternoon, when THE SENTINEL reporter withdrew, the horses had been trotting or pacing on the half-mile track, which was hourly growing better. Many pretty, impromptu contests of speed resulted and were applauded by the hundreds who had gathered there.
The most observed of all the people on the track, however, were Madam Marquette and Myrtle Peck, the celebrated equestriennes, who exercised their spirited stable of thoroughbred running horses. The ladies were riding halbs of gray, with black velvet jockey caps. Their carriage on horseback is remarkable for its firmness and grace. Few gentlemen sit a horse better than these fair contestants for the prize in Friday's exciting race.
The association has been at great expense to secure this attractive novelty and desire that their patrons do not miss seeing it. Wherever the ladies have appeared they have been the great attraction. Each uses five horses, which are changed at the end of each mile, the dismounting and mounting again being done in front of the grand stand. The race always excites the audience to the highest pitch and is always as spirited as can be well imagined. No ladies have reputations as riders equal to those of these two.

A True Heroine.
At Valparaiso the clothing of Julia Leach, a young girl, caught fire from a shower. Her screams brought two men to her assistance who tore off her clothing. She was terribly burned, but even in her agonish cried out, "call Father O'Reilly. It is no use to call a doctor as I will die, and it will only make a greater expense for my poor mother." The poor girl died a few hours after. She is the heroine with all the graces of God. No person can have holier, nobler or higher thoughts in the face of death than God, mother and priest.

STILL TRUE.
"What do you know?" whispered THE SENTINEL representative into Mayor Muhler's ear this morning. "Well sir," said his honor, "an intelligent gentleman asked me yesterday 'why don't you close the saloons on Sunday and at 11 o'clock at night?' I was a little surprised at the man's ignorance and so I explained to him that at no place in the statutes, ordinances or laws does the word 'close' appear. No law gives me the power to close a door and it is silly to talk about it. The law only says 'they shall not sell liquor on Sunday or after 11 o'clock at night.' To convict them of that one must go to their place in the forbidden time, drink the liquor and pay for it himself or stand by and witness some one else do it. I hope no one expects me to engage in that business? Some time ago Prosecutor Dawson subpoenaed forty prominent citizens before the grand jury and not one of them could remember whether he took a drink of liquor on Sunday, whether he paid for it, if he did, or who gave it to him. This shows you the utter impossibility of convicting liquor men, yet people look angry at me if I don't suppress the traffic with a wave of my hand. I am not worrying about the matter and only speak of it to show how unjust and unfair some people are towards officers. I will prosecute all cases brought before me, sustained by evidence. That is all I can do. I will not drink the liquor and make complaint myself, neither will I employ men to do it, for they would probably meet the fate of Deppeler and Rinehart, who recently informed on saloon men."
There is so much truth in Mayor Muhler's statement that no honorable man should grumble at him unless he accompanies it with an affidavit setting forth some violation of the law. Then you will find a chief executive with plenty of backbone.
Masonic Mutual Benefit Association.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Austin H. Brown; vice president, R. S. Robertson; secretary, Geo. H. Test; treasurer, Wm. H. Smythe; attorney, Stanton J. Puelle; gen agent, Robert S. Heiskill; medical director, Samuel Davis.
A Physician's Testimony.
In the treatment of lung and bronchial diseases the liver is often implicated to such an extent that a hepatic remedy becomes necessary in effecting a cure of the lungs. In the treatment of such cases I prescribe Simmons' Liver Regulator with entire satisfaction. I find that it acts mildly but effectually in regulating the secretions of the liver, stomach and bowels.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.
Wm. Lichtain, the East Wayne Street Liquor Dealer, Arrested for Perjury.
The last business of the grand jury was to return an indictment against Wm. Lichtain for perjury. Mr. Lichtain keeps a saloon on East Wayne street, and some time ago was arrested for selling liquor on Sunday. Deppeler and Rinehart, the informers, made the affidavit and Mr. Lichtain sought to defeat their action by swearing he was out of the city at the time named. His family were summoned to the justice court, and not knowing the nature of Mr. Lichtain's statement sworn he was at home on the Sunday specified in the affidavit. This testimony was taken before the grand jury and Mr. Lichtain was indicted as stated. Sheriff Nelson arrested him this morning, and he gave a $500 for his appearance with Fred Bickness as security.
AMUSEMENTS.
DAN RULLY.
This entertaining comedian, of the robust kind, will present a "Capital Prize," at the Temple to-night and to-morrow night. This company has established its reputation and they are great in this "lottery of laughter" as the new play is called.
THE TWO JOHNS
Appear at the Temple Thursday and Friday of this week: "The Two Johns" is without doubt one of the most amusing plays ever written. Conceivably, if you can, two men of over 500 pounds avoirdupois, each with a strong resemblance to the other in face, form and dress. One of the Johns is always in mischief, but when retribution comes the other John is invariably the victim. The play is replete with very ludicrous situations, which provoke great mirth.
A cablegram from Rome to THE SENTINEL reads: "The Roman Catholic bishop of Fort Wayne, Ind., St. Augustine, Fla., and Cleveland, O., have started for home."
Mrs. Fred Nagle, of West Jefferson street, died this morning.
"100 doses one dollar" is true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is an unanswerable argument as to strength and economy.
